BATH DOLPHIN SWIMMING CLUB
BDSC Privacy Notice

We are committed to respecting your privacy. This notice is to explain how we may use personal information we collect before, during and after your involvement with us. This notice explains how we comply with the law on data protection, what your rights are and for the purposes of data protection we will be the controller of any of your personal information.

This notice applies to you if you are either a club member or the parent/guardian of a club member.

References to we, our or us in this privacy notice are to Bath Dolphin Swimming Club.

We have appointed our Chair as our Data Protection Officer to oversee our compliance with data protection laws and as Lead Information Asset Owners, our swimming committee has overall responsibility for data protection compliance. Contact details are set out in the "Contacting us" section at the end of this privacy notice.

1. PERSONAL INFORMATION WE MAY COLLECT FROM YOU

You may provide us with, or we may obtain personal information about you, such as information regarding your:

- personal contact details that allows us to contact you directly such as name, title, email addresses and telephone numbers;

- any funding application details; and
- your marketing preferences so that we know whether and how we should contact you.#

2. SPECIAL CATEGORIES OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

We may also collect, store and use the following "special categories" of more sensitive personal information regarding you:

- information about your race or ethnicity, religious beliefs, sexual orientation and political opinions;
- information about your health, including any medical condition, health and sickness records, medical records and health professional information; and

We may not collect all of the above types of special category personal information about you. In relation to special category personal data that we do process we do so on the basis that:

- the processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, on a lawful basis;
- it is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
- it is necessary for the purposes of carrying out the obligations of the club;
- based on your explicit consent.

In the table below, we refer to these as the “special category reasons for processing of your personal data”.

We may also collect Disclosure and Barring service information from you.

3. WHERE WE COLLECT YOUR INFORMATION

We typically collect personal information when you complete the BDSC membership form on www.bathdolphin.co.uk, upload details to your Team Unify (or OnDeck) account, enter competitions, register for voluntary positions, when you make a query and/or complaint or when you correspond with us by phone, e-mail or in some other way.

For some of your personal information you will have a legal, contractual or other requirement or obligation for you to provide us with your personal information. If you do not provide us with the requested personal information we may not be able to admit you as a member of our club or we may not be able to properly perform our contract with you or comply with legal obligations and we may have to terminate your position as a member of our body. For other personal information you may not be under an obligation to provide it to us, but if you do not provide it then we may not be able to properly perform our contract with you.

Where you have given us your consent to use your personal information in a particular manner, you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time, which you may do by contacting us as described in the "Contacting us" section below.

Please note however that the withdrawal of your consent will not affect any use of the data made before you withdrew your consent and we may still be entitled to hold and process the relevant personal information to the extent that we are entitled to do so on bases other than your consent. Withdrawing consent may also have the same effects as not providing the information in the first place, for example we may no longer be able to provide certain benefits to you.

5. DIRECT MARKETING

Email, OnDeck & SMS marketing: from time to time, we may contact you by email, post or SMS with information about services we believe you may be interested in.

We will only send marketing messages to you in accordance with the marketing preferences you set. You can then let us know at any time that you do not wish to receive marketing messages by contacting us as described in the "Contacting us" section below.

6. DISCLOSURE OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We share personal information with the following parties:

- any party approved by you;
- to any governing bodies or regional bodies for the sports covered by us: to allow them to properly administer the sports on a local, regional and national level;
- other service providers and advisors: for example, payment processors, professional advisors, IT services (including CRM, website, video- and teleconference services);
- external funding providers to meet the conditions of the application process and any funding agreement;
- the Government or our regulators: where we are required to do so by law or to assist with their investigations or initiatives; and
- police, law enforcement and security services: to assist with the investigation and prevention of crime and the protection of national security.

We do not disclose personal information to anyone else except as set out above.

7. HOW LONG DO WE KEEP PERSONAL INFORMATION FOR?

Generally, where there is no legal requirement, we retain all physical and electronic records for a period of six months after your last contact with us or your membership is terminated. Exceptions to this rule are:

- information that may be relevant to personal injury claims, discrimination claims may be retained until the limitation period for those types of claims has expired. For personal injury or discrimination claims this can be an extended period as the limitation period might not start to run until a long time after the event;
- information that may be relevant to projects that we fund may be retained for longer periods in order to allow us to assess the longer-term impact of our support for sports projects; and
- historic, sequential competition results and records.

It is important to ensure that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and up-to-date, and you should let us know if anything changes, for example if you change your phone number or email address. You may be able to update some of the personal information we hold about you through your online account or the Swim England members' portal. Alternatively, you can contact us by using the details set out in the "Contacting us" section below.

8. YOUR RIGHTS IN RELATION TO PERSONAL INFORMATION

You have the following rights in relation to your personal information:

- the right to be informed about how your personal information is being used;
- the right to access the personal information we hold about you;
- the right to request the correction of inaccurate personal information we hold about you;
- the right to request the erasure of your personal information in certain limited circumstances;
- the right to restrict processing of your personal information where certain requirements are met;
- the right to object to the processing of your personal information;
- the right to request that we transfer elements of your data either to you or another service provider; and
- the right to object to certain automated decision-making processes using your personal information.

You should note that some of these rights, for example the right to require us to transfer your data to another service provider or the right to object to automated decision making, may not apply as they have specific requirements and exemptions which apply to them and they may not apply to personal information recorded and stored by us.

Whilst this privacy notice sets out a general summary of your legal rights in respect of personal information, this is a very complex area of law. More information about your legal rights can be found on the Information Commissioner's website at <https://ico.org.uk/for-the-public/>.

To exercise any of the above rights, or if you have any questions relating to your rights, please contact us by using the details set out in the "Contacting us" section below.

If you are unhappy with the way we are using your personal information you can also complain to the UK Information Commissioner's Office or your local data protection regulator. We are here to help and encourage you to contact us to resolve your complaint first.

9. CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE

We may update this privacy notice from time to time. When we change this notice in a material way, we will update the version date at the bottom of this page. For significant changes to this notice we will try to give you reasonable notice unless we are prevented from doing so. Where required by law we will seek your consent to changes in the way we use your personal information.

10. CONTACTING US

In the event of any query or complaint in connection with the information we hold about you, please email us at bathdolphininfo@gmail.com.
